Stage Cheer-In

Ramona Pep Groups may have begun a cheering tradition among Southern California area high schools this past Friday, Sept. 13, when they presented the first Cheer-In. The event was held from 7:30 to 10:30 in the Ramona Cafeteria, admission was free and all students were invited to attend.

The event consisted of a pep rally by cheerleaders from Ramona and a performance of cheers from visiting cheerleaders who had been hosted by the Ramona Squad earlier in the evening for dinner. Entertainment was also provided by folksinging duo Kusudo & Worth.

"The Cheer-In," commented Janet Johnson, Varsity Cheerleader, "was held in order to promote school spirit for the year and to introduce students to the array of different techniques and styles used in cheerleading."
